3/30/68

Dear Jim,

When I was there and you said you were going to decline an invitation to debate Reilich at the Univ. of Pa. I asked you to recommend me instead. You said you would. I have not heard anything. I do hope you have not forgotten. This could be a very good opportunity.

Apropos of Moe's call, within 24 hours after the man calls me, I'll be on my way. I'll make tentative arrangements Monday when I am in DC.

He and I made two long tapes and obtained a third. I have arranged for the transcription of these tapes. The shortest one is on the way. As soon as I can dub the other two, they also will be taken care of.

Enclosed is a copy of a letter I have written Bobby. It was 4:30 this morning when I finished it and I haven't taken time to reread it, so I hope it is what I intended. He is a consummate fool, an unspeakable scoundrel, and indescribable coward, or a combination. Time will tell us which. Whatever, this and what he did down there will ultimately help.

My own belief is that whatever or whatever combination he is, he is also, in addition, at the very least also a captive of his adviser(s). He is not stupid. What he has done is. He had to have had considerable help to have done what cannot possibly help him and cannot possibly avoid hurting him.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
